

All of the complaints about media bias are warranted, when we are faced with a situation like Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

This one-sided movie is essentially a pro-Bush advertisement, being paid for by a huge media conglomerate. They should be required to identify it as advertising, and not misrepresent it as an objective media investigation into the candidate.